Nicola Weisenberger Victor Hafichuk it was a joke! The face paint is a phone app! I've been trapped inside my home for over 5 weeks! It had nothing to do with Halloween. Read my previous posts! It was in relation to being bored

Victor Hafichuk Nicola, boredom and joking are not justifications for identifying with evil. Don't you realize that? Fine, so we can understand trying circumstances; we all have them in divers ways, but to do foolish things is never a satisfactory solution and toying with evil is anything but a joke. Do you honestly hear the Lord Jesus laughing? Do you honestly see Him humored by this?

I will also say that when a heart is turned to Him in whatever circumstances, He's there. Do you read our site, ThePathofTruth? No boredom there for those who are truly hungry and thirsty for reality and purpose, no matter who or where they are.

Victor Hafichuk Sorry, I don't buy that. Doing "whatever" is not sane. I'm thinking, hoping, that Nicola understands that Jesus Christ answers all things. There are ever better things to do than identifying in any way with Halloween, a celebration of pure evil.

Donna Louise Jardine I enjoy halloween as I am born that day and dress up as a witch and as I get called a witch I think it's fun so enjoy yourself having a laugh nicola. everyone is entitled to do what they want.

Like · Reply · 1 · November 1 at 11:02am

Victor Hafichuk Donna, spoken as a true witch. The Bible says rebellion against God and His Law is as witchcraft, as in "everyone is entitled to do what they want." That is the essence of rebellion, and where does it lead? To nowhere good, not ever. It is very selfish, counterproductive, irresponsible, and plainly wicked.

"No 'woman' is an island unto herself." What we think, say, and do impacts everyone else, one way or another. If what I want isn't good, then where do I get off feeling "entitled" and not taking my neighbor's interests to heart?

In this instant, you come across as Nicola's friend by advising her as you do, and she even likes it, but you only add to the troubles by that kind of counsel and attitude.

You "think" it's fun, but what do you KNOW? You despise the Law of God which says, "Love your neighbor as yourself," and replace it with, "Love your neighbor FOR yourself."

I would hope Nicola would see through that, and I hope you'll hear what I have to say for your good, too. Again, no condemnation here, only the Truth, and if the Truth condemns you, hold the Truth responsible - I'm only the messenger for good.

Like · Reply · 2 · November 1 at 11:43am · Edited

Donna Louise Jardine I'm a good person who is entitled to her opinion and if that makes me wicked and irresponsible then so be it I am having fun as are many others. As for god if he was real he would take away all evil and only leave good which he hasn't there are a lot of evil people out there ie: murderers rapists so don't give me al this god stuff coz it don't wash with me !!!

Like · Reply · 3 · November 1 at 11:48am

Victor Hafichuk Donna, you are answering my question, "What do you know?" Now, if there is no God, then how do you know what is good or bad, right or wrong? Where do morals come from? An explosion of gases? Come on.

And who says YOU are a good person? Who decides? Who can make that judgment except an objective, discerning intelligent being?

So you claim you're a good person, but you claim entitlement, which presumed privilege I've just proven to be illegitimate if you care about others, which means you can't do as you please. But then you dismiss the Truth and Unselfish Reason with "if that makes me wicked and irresponsible then so be it I am having fun." Is that good in itself, then?

"...as are many others." So, do good people follow the crowd? Do you justify your thinking by being in the majority? Will you "jump in the lake and drown" because many others do it? You know better, don't you?

God is VERY real. I know Him in personal experience. He visited me when evil was destroying me and delivered me out of destruction. I've walked with Him now since 1973. He's Real, all right. Furthermore, He is Sovereign over both evil and good, the two sides, light and darkness, having to be worked that ultimate good might come in the end, which it will.

Donna, who are you to decide what God should be like or what He should be doing? Are you really that "good"? What is your source of authority?

Did you know God says YOU are a murderer and rapist? Did you know you're as capable of any evil as is any other human being? How then can you call yourself, "good"?

God Himself suffered through the sacrifice of His Only Begotten Son so that we might be redeemed and reconciled to Him. So He hasn't been doing things in a way that He's free of all suffering while we mortals are subjected to all kinds of suffering. He's in here with us for the full process. Christ was crucified for us, and then raised from the dead after 3 days to give us His resurrected Spirit Life so we can also share in His Life here on earth and hereafter.

These things I know by both the Scriptures and personal experience. I've also met and been with others who have experienced the same, independently from me.

Victor Hafichuk Again, Donna, it is rather presumptuous of you to think you know Who God is or what He is like or what His will is when you don't know Him? What is your source of authority - you?

Not good enough. You say you wouldn't harm any other living thing? What does God say about that?

Romans 3:10-18 MKJV

- (10) as it is written: "There is none righteous, no not one;
- (11) there is none that understands, there is none that seeks after God."
- (12) "They are all gone out of the way, they have together become unprofitable, there is none that does good, no, not one."
- (13) "Their throat is an open grave, with their tongues they have used deceit, the poison of asps is under their lips;
- (14) whose mouth is full of cursing and bitterness;"
- (15) "their feet are swift to shed blood;
- (16) destruction and misery are in their way,
- (17) and the way of peace they did not know."
- (18) "There is no fear of God before their eyes."

That includes every human that ever lived, outside of Christ.

It's not about following what I believe; it's about believing what God says. Do you want to argue? Take it up with Him, not me; I'm not the one who came up with all this.

Did Jesus Christ "lighten up" to entertain the world, including you, and have some fun, or did He suffer the horrific execution of the cross for you? Think about it.

Besides, I've had and do have far more joy and peace than you've ever dreamed of. Why? Because I've learned that you can never have true happiness without worshipping Jesus Christ with all your heart, soul, mind, and strength. He's done that for me - no credit to me.

So what's all this phony fun all about? Was there, tried it, it didn't work for me and now that I have the Real Thing, why would I want to go back to the 'sin'thetic? Fun isn't working for you either, Donna, and you know it, too.

Victor Hafichuk That's right, Kirstie, a few words from none other than the Lord Jesus Christ. So, it seems you give the Bible some credence, do you?

Now let's round that out a bit. "Judge not according to appearance but judge righteous judgment." There's much about judging in the Bible that you aren't vaguely familiar with.

Jesus also said:

Matthew 7:3-5 MKJV

(3) And why do you look on the splinter that is in your brother's eye, but do not consider the beam that is in your own eye?

(4) Or how will you say to your brother, Let me pull the splinter out of your eye; and, behold, a beam is in your own eye?

(5) Hypocrite! First, cast the beam out of your own eye, and then you shall see clearly to cast the splinter out of your brother's eye.

In other words, one can remove one's beam and then is qualified to "cast the splinter out of his 'sister's' eye."

In other words, if you judge yourself or receive judgment (correction), you are then able to judge.

Nicola Weisenberger Victor Hafichuk is this biblical quoting bringing ppl to our Father? Like I asked u earlier: are we not meant to pull our brothers and sisters in private to show them their errors? I have professed to be a believer in Christ with you. No one else on these comments has done that... so, I am asking u why not pull me up in private?

Victor Hafichuk Nicola, don't you see how these others are hearing what they need to hear? Would they hear it if I were to whisper in your ear privately? If God is your Father, then you'll believe His Son Who says:

"What I tell you in darkness, speak in the light; and what you hear, proclaim on the housetops" (Matthew 10:27 MKJV).

If I were to come into your neighborhood and stand on a rooftop and shout, everybody there will hear me who has ears to hear, not only you. Well, I AM in your neighborhood here on FB.

If you profess Christ, you'll take up your cross, identifying with Him, will you not? Which means you won't care about yourself, your image, dignity or comfort. The cross means death. Jesus Christ died publicly. We are not called to be secret professors of faith. That is not faith, Nicola.

"It is enough for the disciple that he is like his master, and the servant like his lord. If they have called the master of the house Beelzebub, how much more those of his household? Therefore do not fear them, for there is nothing covered that shall not be revealed, and nothing hidden which shall not be known"
(Matthew 10:25-26 MKJV).

"And do not fear those who kill the body, but are not able to kill the soul. But rather fear Him who can destroy both soul and body in hell" (Matthew 10:28 MKJV).

John 3:19-21 MKJV

(19) And this is the condemnation, that the Light has come into the world, and men loved darkness rather than the Light, because their deeds were evil.

(20) For everyone who does evil hates the Light, and does not come to the Light, lest his deeds should be exposed.

(21) But he who practices truth comes to the Light so that his works may be revealed, that they exist, having been worked in God.

Luke 8:16-18 MKJV

(16) And no one lighting a lamp covers it with a vessel or puts it under a couch; but he sets it on a lampstand so that those who enter in may see the light.

(17) For nothing is secret that shall not be revealed; nor secret which shall not be known and come to be revealed.

(18) Therefore be careful how you hear. For whoever has, to him shall be given; and whoever has not, from him shall be taken even that which he seems to have.

Victor Hafichuk "Photo of a loving mother and her beautiful boy"? How sick is that? So why should a "loving mother" present herself as not only unloving but one that sucks the blood of a fellow human being?

And what's to interpret? The words of the Lord in Scripture are plain enough. It is only those who refuse the entry of truth that scream out against it out of all reason.

As for hopes of heaven, the ticket is in the words of the Lord Himself:

Luke 13:1-5 MKJV

- (1) And some were present at the same time reporting to Him of the Galileans whose blood Pilate had mixed with their sacrifices.
- (2) And answering, Jesus said to them, Do you suppose that these Galileans were sinners above all the Galileans because they suffered such things?
- (3) I tell you, No. But unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.
- (4) Or those eighteen on whom the tower in Siloam fell and killed them, do you think that they were sinners above all men who lived in Jerusalem?
- (5) I tell you, No. But unless you repent, you will all likewise perish.

Plain enough for all you funners? Wow! What horrors await you!

You believe in acceptance of all creeds? How about Islam and Sharia law? Are you all for that - old men marrying six-year-old daughters and consummating at age nine? Raping and beating women, doing as they please with them? FGM? Lying, stealing, cutting off hands and feet, etc? Does that harmonize with Jesus Christ?

Christianity says God sent His Son to pay for our sins while Islam says, "God has no Son." How do you honor both of those? The problem is you and so many millions of other "useful idiots," as Muslims call those infidels (nonmuslims who are ignorant and accepting of Islam) don't have a clue what's happening. But you will; already you're hearing of it on your streets and in your homes. All because you despise the Truth.

And those who profess faith but despise being bold and honest about it are asking for more trouble than supposed atheists, because they take on His Name in vain, which brings on more judgment, for that commandment has the rider that says: The Lord will not hold him/her guiltless that takes upon him/herself the Name of the Lord in vain.

No, all of you are in for some serious shock and worse. Know it; if you don't, you will, and it will be too late. By all the evidence here, it is now too late for you.
